Judge Lamont, Democratic candidate for enator in the XXIIId District, referred as follows to the anal frauds in accepting the nomination : "This system of plunder, in various forms and under many disguises has been going on for years. Gen. Dix, an accomplished gentleman, an able Governor, made no discovery in this direction. I am not going to impute to this distinguished statesman any intentional omission of duty, vet I say without partisan feelings that if the same desire to pro act the interests of the State had been manifested in the first part of his administration, as has been by his Excel ency Gov. I regard the primary issue now in this State to be in these exposures go on? Shall the restitution, commenced se auspictously, continue? Mr. C. P. Vedder's determination to remain in the field for Senator is not relished by a portion at least of the Republican press. The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle says: " It may become the duty of the District Committee to compel his retirement. The party can hardly afford to take the chances he assumes." The Troy Times says: "Our judgment is that Mr. Vedder ought to withdraw from the canvass and let some one take his place on the Senatorial ticket concerning whose status no question can be raised. The Republicans can not afford to run the risk of losing a Senator by choosing to the place any person who can by any possibility be at once."

The Albany Express sums up the situation correctly in saying: "We notice that a majority of our Republican exchanges appear to regret the fact that Mr. Vedder is not to withdraw from the Senatorial contest in the XXXIId District. There seems to be an earnest desire to have him get out of the way, even though he be not inslighble.

The Hon. Matthew Hale, Republican partner of Deputy Attorney-General Fairchild, writes to The Albany Journal in reply to its charges against Mr. Fairchild in relation to the Hand award certificates. The only epinion given by his partners was one to the effect that laws "authorizing the Canal Board to award additional compensation to contractors" did not require a two-thirds vote, as claimed. The opinion is signed by only three members of the firm, not including Mr. Fair shild; the action was solely under Mr. Hale's charge, and its object was not to force payment by the State "but to prevent the Lords from getting the whole amount awarded." Mr. Hale says further: "The letter eas written without the knowledge of Mr. Faircuild. It is proper to say, also, that when Mr. Fairchild did learn that this action had been brought, he expressed to me a egret that I had consented to take the case, as possibly

THE CONTEST IN OHIO.

LAST DAYS WORK.

ADVANTAGES TO THE REPUBLICANS OF THE CUR-RENCY ARGUMENT-REGRETS FELT THAT IT WAS NOT BEGUN SOONER-THE AMOUNT OF MONEY USED SMALL-HOW THE PARTIES FELT LAST NIGHT.

BY TELEGRAPH FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 11.-During the day and vening the Democrats have held about thirty meetings in different parts of the State, Gov. Allen, Gov. Hendricks, Mr. Cary, Mr. Pendleton, Gen. Ewing, Mr. Voorhees, Mr. Beck, and Gov. Curtin, and others of less note, keeping the field to the last. Cary is said to have spoken more hours during the canvass than any other three speakers put together. It is feared that he will not stop after election, but will keep on talking. The Republicans held a few meetings this evening, at the request of local committees, and rather against the advice of the State Committee, who preferred that the last day should be devoted to the work of organization for to-morrow's contest at the polls. Most of the Republican leaders would be glad if the canvass could be prolonged for a fortnight. They see now what a mistake it was to lose a whole month, as they did, in avoiding the only real issue in the struggle. Since the currency question has been taken up in earnest they have gained constantly. It was not until the New-York Convention had been held, and Schurz and Woodford came into the State, that the party ventured to defend its record in favor of specie payments, and to attack the rag-money theories which the Democrats had for weeks been impudently challenging them to

If Haves is beaten to-morrow, it will be solely because of the timid, apologetic attitude on the currency which the Republican orators and newspapers took in all the early part of the campaign. To enlighten the people on the financial question, correct the cutrageous misstatements of the inflationists and expose the fallacy of their spurious arguments, required time, and unfortunately much precious time was wasted for want of wisdom to comprehend the situation and courage to grapple with it. If the result to-morrow is a victory for honest money, very little of the credit will belong to the Ohio Republican politicians. They were crowded into the fight against inflation by the independent press of New-York and Cincinnati, by the action of both the Saratega and Syracuse Conventions, and by the factwhich dawned at the eleventh hour-that they were marching to certain defeat because they had not accepted the challengs of their opponents to meet them on the only genuine issue involved in the con-

It appears to be the honest belief of all well-informed Republicans, to-night, that Hayes will have a fair majority. They hold their hopes, first, on the Western Reserve counties, where the people are too intelligent to be deceived by the rag-meney cry; and, secondly, on Hamilton County, where twothirds of the Germans, who went over to the Democracy through the side-door of Liberalism, or the direct passage of anti-Prohibition, have unquestionably returned to their former allegiance. Persons who watch the early returns to-morrow night for indications of the result, should particularly notice those from these two opposite corners of the State. If the City of Cleveland, and the towns like Warren, Ravenna, Painesville, Ashtabula, Akron, and Oberlin, show large Republican gains, the State has in all probability gone for Hayes. If, in addition, imortant gains are reported in Cincinnati and the rest of Hamilton County, there need be no doubt of the result. Returns from the iron and coal towns-Youngstown, Niles, Ironton, and Portsmonth-for example, are expected to exhibit considerable gains for the Democrats, and if they fail to do so it will be a bad sign for them. Comparisons, it should be borne in mind, will be with the election of 1873, when Allen had barely 800 majority, and not with that of 1874, when the Democrats carried the State by about 17,000.

A number of prominent Democrats gathered at their State Committee room this afternoon. They looked despondent, but of course would not adm to an outsider that they had given up hope. Chairman Thompson complained of the want of funds during the canvass, and said that most of their speakers had paid their own expenses. About $4,500, he said, is all the money the State Committee have spent. Senator Thurman remarked that the Republican Committee had had $40,000 from Washington alone, raised by Postmaster Edmunds. The Senator appears to have had his figures greatly inflated for him by somebody. One-tenth of the sum he named, it is asserted on excellent authority. would about represent the amount sent by the great official collection-raiser, and most of that he got by passing round the hat among the office-holders in Ohio. The truth is, that neither party has had much money, though the Republicans have undoubtedly ad a great deal more to spend than the Democrats.

The talk, in Democratic papers, of Republican repeaters imported from Philadelphia and negroes olonized in Ohio may be set down as gammon. Elections have always been remarkably pure in Ohio, and the party managers on both sides are men of too much character to attempt to gain a few hundred votes by fraud. There is of course some illegal voting in the cities, procured by ward politicians, but such a thing as a State Committee importing bands of repeaters from other States was never

SALES OF POOLS-THE WAGERS EVEN AT ONE ROOM -ODDS IN PAVOR OF HAYES AT ANOTHER.

Speculation as to the result of the Ohio lection to-day has taken the shape of very active betting at the several pool rooms. No political or partisan feelng was shown, however, in sale of pools. The betting opened at the Turf Exchange on Saturday evening with even figures, but closed with the odds slightly in favor of Hayes. Last evening the beiting opened very spiritedly. At Thomas's Exchange a large number of pools were sold early in the evening. Opinion seemed very equally divided as to the result. A majority of the pools were at ven figures, occasionally varying in favor of one or the other of the candidates, as follows: At Johnson's pool rooms the most interest was mani-ested. Betting was very spirited yesterday afternoon, and great odds were offered in favor of the Republican

THE INTEREST FELT AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.-The interest shown in Washington in the result of the election in Ohio tomorrow surpasses anything of the kind since 1872. Almost nothing else is talked about, except the mystery that surrounds the Interior Department, and nearly every citizen of Ohio holding office in this city, or who was here on business, has gone home to vote. Nearly every item of news received from the State during the past-few days has been favorable to the Republicans and the cause of honest money. and although the friends of Gov. Hayes do not speak of his election with explicit confidence, and do not count on a large majority, they will greatly disappointed if he is defeated. Leading Republicans do not hesitate to admit that a defeat in Ohio would be not only a great national calamity, but a blow from which the Administration party would with great difficulty recover.

THE PRESBYTERY OF NEW-YORK.

The semi-annual meeting of the Presbytery of New-York took place yesterday in the University Place Presbyterian Church, at University-place and Tenth-st. At the afternoon session a committee to nominate the Board of Presbytery for next year was ap pointed. The overture of the General Assembly on the subject of reducing the number of delegates to the Gen-eral Assembly, and also the cost of the annual meetings, was laid over until the December meeting. Five young men were taken under care of the Presbytery, to fit them for the ministry. The Rev. John Thompson, D. D., was dismissed to the Presbytery of Ghagow, Scotland, and the Rev. J. O. Murray, D. D., to the Presbytery of New-Brungwick, N. J. The report of the Committee on Church Extension for the year ending Oct. 5, was then read.

GENERAL POLITICAL NEWS.

WENDELL PHILLIPS AGAIN. ONLY ONE ARGUMENT. THE DISHONESTY AND EX-TORTION OF A LAW COMPELLING SPECIE PAY MENTS.

lish in The Beston Herald to-morrow the following in reply to Mr. Schurz's last remarks:

To the Editor of The Boston Herald:

Mr. Schurz says nothing at St. Louis that needs or deserves notice. Abuse of me is not argument, and, whether true or faise, is of no consequence to the American people. His facts have no bottom to rest on. He invents them to meet a difficulty. Mr. Carey's argument that "during the war the amount of our currency did not cause the variations in gold wree caused by men's doubts of the nation's willingness or ability to pay its debts. But this pretense will not serve; 1863 and 1864 were our most despondent years, yet the price of gold in 1863 and the opening of 1864 averagea about the same as in 1864 and 1888, when peace and victory had long settled all such doubts. Again, if such doubts during the war depreciated our greenbacks, they would of course have also depreciated our bonds, and made them vary constantly. Yet our 1881 bonds steadily rose from 1862 to 1868. Of course such doubts had their influence, but not enough to touch the hem of Mr. Carey's remneat. Such hasty inventions make what the Senatora calls "facts" and "practical statesmanship." But this discussion in Onio is deeper than words. Three-quarters of this mation are borrowers. Only one-quarter are lenders. A law compelling specie payments is simply the lenders robbing the horrowers. The specie men parade themselves as the party of "public honesty." Look at it? The man who borrowed $100 last month must, if the law forces resumption, pay $117 to settle his debt. Thus the capitalist robs his debtor by asking the Government for such a law. Let specie recomption come in the regular course of business and it is honest. Force it by law, and it is only a trick by which wealth adds one-sixth to every poor man's debt. Government has a right to interfere between debtor and creditor in the emergency of war to save the State. This justifies our Legal-tender law. Government has no right to obtain a new to passe the relations of creditor

THE SEVENTH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT REPUBLICAN

The regular weekly meeting of the VIIth Assembly District Republican Association was held at the Lincoln Club-rooms at No. 12 University-place, last evening. Dr. Isaac I. Hayes addressed the meeting. It has been a campaign of argument and not of stating that the county was saddled with a heavy debt, and charging the Democracy with being the direct cause by making the war a necessity. Referring to the City of New-York, he said that it was especially fit for a great commercial mart; but by unfair and unjust taxation it was compelled to pay an unreasonable proportion of the expenses of the State. With a population of one-fourth expenses of the State. With a population of one-contra-of the State, it paid over half the taxes, at the same time that laws were being made which eneronehed upon the harbor facilities of the city without the consent of its inhabitants. Yet with all this taxation there was less to show for it than was to be found in most other cities. Philadelphia, with 750,000 people, paid $250,000 per an-num for cleaning and drawing the streets, while New-York, with 1,000,000 inhabitants, paid $1,000,000 for against service.

York, with Theorems and the financial question at some length, and the history of the Democratic party, charging it with being the cause of the loss of 500,000 lives during the war. He said that party opposed the issue of the legal-tender currency when it was a necessity, and now were trying to extend it at a time when it was not needed.
